Thinking Out Loud

By H. M. L.

We have at hand the semi-annual statement of the Mine Workers Protective League, from January 1 to June 30. 1938. Its total receipts from initiation fees and dues in the six months was $8,360, as compared with $7,124.50 for the same period in 1937. During the half year the League has paid out in accident benefits, $3,090, funeral benefits $1,955, and relief benefits to members $600. In addition to this from the Widow's and Orphans' fund, which is supported chiefly by the League's annual Miner's Picnic, there has been paid a total of $805.

These facts verified by competent auditors, cannot compare of course, with the demogogic appeal made by the president of the affiliate of the CIO on a recent visit here, when he promised that all workers would receive $5,000 per year (the present salary of a first class mining engineer) when this country was organized under CIO. Promises of this kind tickle the ears of the simple-minded. The fact that such an income to all the workers of the country would amount to five times the present annual income of the United States from all sources, is to the bird-witted and befuddled of no arithmetical consequence. A stentorian demagogue with the gift-of-gab, spins fancy yarns for people who believe President Roosevelt is a messiah and that John L. Lewis is his holy apostle. The truth or sane reasoning have no place in his word picture of a millenium.

Unlike the prophets of old, however, who were clad in rags and fed upon scraps of food left from more abundant tables, the modern labor prophet builds him mansions and huge office buildings. From the poor he wrings their last penny and then flings them aside(witness the Widow Yanus and her children) for the "burgoise" enemy to care for. He struts into Congress, establishes himself in the Speaker's office and sends out commands to representatives of all the people. That Congress rebuked this charlaton and racketeer, ignored him, and sent him away in a huge peeve, with empty hands, is beside the point.

This man, who forced a President of the United States to give him more power than any other man had ever held in this country, attempted to set up a dictatorship in the Capitol at Washington. He had contributed a half million dollars to the campaign fund of Roosevelt(without the consent of his supporting unions) and in return demanded that the National Labor Relations Board, so far as all practical effect is concerned, should be his, and got it. The board serves John L. Lewis and the CIO. It has done more to wreck industry in the United States than any other agency. But Lewis' greed for power is not satiated.

Everywhere the CIO penetrates it seeks to overthrow AF of L or independent unions. In Nevada County a short time after its organization, it came close to taking over the Mine Workers Protective League. The goal was to seize the treasury of $50,000 which the league in nearly two decades had accumulated. But the alarm was sounded in time. Except in the Lava Cap mine and the Boca Dam the CIO in Nevada County is retreating. It promises much and does little for its members. What the League promes, it fullfils to the letter. Miners who build homes, rear children and work in their garde in their leisure time, men who put money into savings deposits, who pay their bills, generally speaking, are members of the league. Drifters who go from one camp to another, who work a few days and roister a few weeks, who dream of wealth but never lay the first dollar away, who flock to hear Harry Bridges the Australian communist, whom Secretary Perkins shelters in her voluminous petticoats with thousands of other seditious aliens, men who pay their dues for a little while, then renig but still are counted in the membership, such as these, generally speaking, join some CIO organization.

Whatever money these dupes pay goes to build stately mansions for John L. Lewis, to buy him or some other racketeering satrap of his, a Cadillac car, or to swell a fund, which some day may be large enough to set him up as an American type Hitler or Mussolini. The flouting that Lewis received in the closing days of Congress, at the hands of legislators who still represent ALL the people undoubtedly had a blighting effect upon Lewis' ambition. The fact unemployment has come to intimately be associated with CIO membership everywhere has dried up the Lewis' financial revenues to such an extent that those members who continue in jobs are constantly harrassed with assessments. Those unions affiliated with AF of L and many independent unions are apparently faring much better than Lewis' followers. Our own Mine Workers' Protective League grows steadily in membership. Its reserve fund is increasing. It takes care of its members, and has no greedy, bulbous horse leeches in Eastern industrial centers to support.

What is it that has discredited Lewis and his CIO in the minds of reasonable people everywhere? Many things. His demand, quid pro quo, on the President; the seizure of other people's property in the sit-down strikes; the minorities that attempted to coerce majorities (23 voted to strike the Murchie mine against 240 who had no chance to vote); the association of communist leaders, such as Elaine Black locally, and communist party chiefs in the East, in fact everywhere, with the CIO, and the unavailing efforts of leaders like Homer Martin, to rid the CIO of the communistic curse. These are some reasons why the CIO is in retreat. Its only remaining citadel is the National Labor Relations Board. We confidently predict that the next session of Congress will give that institution a complete overhauling and deodorizing.

SUIT FILED TO QUIET TITLE ON PIONEER DITCHES

A suit to quiet title to important key water resources necessary for hydraulic mining was filed in the superior court Saturday by the San Juan Gold Company. The defendants in the action are the Western Gold, Inc., Ridge Mines, Inc., W. A. Taylor and C. E. Clark, vice president of the California Hydraulic Mining Association.

Drift mining is progressing at the Relief Hill property and preparations are going forward to start hydraulic operations on a large scale when the Upper Narrows debris dam is built. In recent legal transactions the San Juan Gold Company has obtaied options on most of the former noted hydraulic mining properties in the Columbia Hill, North Bloomfield and San Juan sections.

In the suit the plaintiffs seek to enjoin the defendants from in any way claiming any right to the following ditches: Eureka Lake, Milton, San Juan, Miners, Magenta, Poorman's, Bloody Run, Lower Bloody Run, Grizzly, Spring Creek, Spicer, Hustler, Rand, Kennebec Hill and certain portions of Blair and Tisdale, Ruff and Dash, Missouri Canyon, Firm Union Ravine, Irwin and Lower Eureka, and the following resrvoirs, Union Ravine, Irwin and Lower Eureka, Blairs, Relief Hill, Waldron and the upper reservoir at Columbia Hill.

FRIENDS FROM SOUTH AFRICA VISIT BECKERS

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Peterson and daughter, of South Africa will arrive in Nevada City Wednesday and be guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Becker at their home at Town Talk. Mr. Peterson, is manager of the Roan Antelope mine in South Africa. The family is spending one of Mr. Peterson's long vacations of seven months which come every three years, in the United States. He plans to visit every mining property of consequence in the western part of the United States.

After a short visit here they plan to go with Mr. and Mrs. Becker on a trip of several weeks. hey will go north to Vancouver, and Victoria, British Columbia. Returning they will go to Yosemite Valley, Boulder Dam and San Diego.

Mr. Becker visited Mr. and Mrs. Peterson when he made the flying trip to South Africa last May, but it has been two years since Mrs. Becker has seen them and many happy hours will be passed by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. John Becker have named their home on Town Talk "M'Kana" after the last mine Mr. Becker had charge of in Rhodesia, South Africa. Friends at M'Kana gathered at a farewell party and presented Mr. and Mrs. Becker with copper plates with the name of the mine on them. These plates have been placed on the posts at the entrance to the home recently.

RICH FIND FOR LEASOR OF GREAT NORTHERN

Lloyd Haddy, young leasor at the Hoge mine has developed a particularly good gold bearing vein from a few inches to about four feet in width. Assays on concentrates ran over $800. which is extraordinarily high for this camp. Tests were made by E. J. N. Ott, pioneer assayer of Nevada City.

Haddy is the son of Thomas Haddy, superintendent of the Hoge Mine. He started work on this lease with several companions who gave up in discouragement from time to time but Haddy kept determinedly on to reap a rich reward.

There are about six groups or 18 men leasing at the Hoge property. J. B. Canada, young mining engineer being the latest. Ore mined by these men keeps the mill running two shifts.

BRITISH HOME IS STRENGTH OF BRITISH NATION

LOS ANGELES, July 11.—A unique strength and solidarity, which ranges throughout British society from the Colonel's Lady to Judy O'Grady, has made Great Britain the most remarkable power in modern times and explains why she is traditionally counted on to "muddle through" almost any international situation, Dr. Frank J. Klingberg, professor of history on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California, told members of the English Speaking Union here in a recent address on The Strength of the British Home.

"Great Britain's unique strength is based primarily on an internal cohesion and an all-pervading solidarity from the worker to the greatest aristocrat and has made her the most redoubtable power in modern times," Dr. Klingberg said. "In times of crisis such as those, for instance, when Napoleon's armies were in Madrid, Rome, and Moscow, Britain stood firm against the combined might of the European continent because the home front held.

"A great French historian attributed this internal strength to religion, which taught men restraint and self control, and also to a native and traditional capacity for self-government. Until a century ago, Britain was practically a country without a police, and self-government was literally self restraint. A horde of officials was not needed. The occasional riot merely revealed that there was no police force of consequence.

"Others have explained the strength on the ground that Britain is separated from wars and feuds of the continent by geography. Still others, that a caste society with an intellectual class of leaders is responsible. Still others, to a Celtic, Germanic and Romantic heritage, mixed in just the correct proportions. Still others, to a cool climate. Others, to the intelligence of the country's families, which have prevented the country from falling into sharp divisions."

"Again, the pride of achievement in the arts and sciences, in industry and government, in language and literature, in world wide enterprises and world wide empire, have made the British peoples the heirs of Greece and of Rome, and perhaps, these facts account for the strength of the British home front."

LOCAL LABOR FIRST, PLEA OF HYDRAULIC ASSN.

Delegates from 25 California cities attended the California Hydraulic Mining Association meeting held at the Freeman Hotel in Auburn Saturday at which Colonel Warren T. Hannum, chairman of the California Debris Commission and other members of the commission were present.

Colonel Hannum stated that the contract for the North Fork dam had been let to A. Tiechert and Company of Sacramento and that 120 men were employed in actual construction work. One million dollars, he said, had been awarded for the Narrows Dam and that engineers were cleaning their borings so that prospective bidders on contracts, which will be called shortly, could investigate and determine the geological formation and the nature of the rock; he also stated that a suitable site had been found on the Middle Fork of the American river with adequate faundations. He anticipated that actual operations on the Narrows and American Middle Fork dams will begin before the snow flies.

In the discussion period held later in the afternoon, the matter of indigent and transient labor maving to construction sites was considered. A committee was named to iterview present and future contractors and to endeavor to secure "local labor first" in selecting the working personnel. Members considered this proposal of vital importance to the communities which will become the logical dam headquarters.

The next meeting of the association will be a celebration gathering with Congressman Harry L. Englebright as guest of honor and speaker.

FOURTH FIESTA SHOWS DIVIDEND FOR CHAMBER

George Gildersleeve reports that the Fourth of July committee of which he was chairman, is in the black. otal receipts were $2,280.43; of which $650.50 was contributed by citizens, and $1,627.93 received from entertainment at Armory Hall. The total expense, with a few small bills still to be presented, was $2,037.14, of which expenses at Armory Hall amounted to $895.68 and $1141.46 for other expenses. It is estimated that bills still to be paid may total something under $100, which would leave an apparent balance of approximately $100 to place in the Nevada City Chamber of Commerce treasury.

JOE O'NEILL IMPROVING

The many friends of Joe O'Neill who has been seriously ill at the Nevada City Sanitarium for more than the past month will be glad to hear that he is improving and is able to sit up for a short time each day. He is not yet able to receive visitors.

FISHERMEN GET LIMITS ON SOUTH YUBA RIVER

Sunday fishing was extremely successful for a number of local fishermen. Victor Gates, Lon Elkus, Jack Widauf and Everet Robinson fished all day on the South Yuba above Washington and each brought out the limit. Jack Widauf had one of 2 1-2 pounds caught on Canyon creek. On another fish broke his tackle after he played him for five minutes. Everett Robinson got some big fellows using a Tippy Coachman, fishing above the old Eagle Bird mine. He has managed to get the limit every week end lately.

Garfield Robson caught three nice fellows Sunday weighing over one pound each.

CIO LAWYER IS AGAIN TRYING TO CHANGE VENUE

Motions for change of venue and to disqualify Judge Raglan Tuttle from presiding in the trial of Grant Spear, were Saturday filed by Geo. R. Anderson, attorney for the defendant and served on Judge Tuttle and District Attorney Vernon Stoll.

The trial of the case was set for this morning but it did not come up at that time and instead the motions filed Saturday will be disposed of by court rulings.

The grounds of the motion to disqualify Judge Tuttle are alleged bias and prejudice against he defendant and also the judge's attitude on probation for defendants after conviction by a jury.

There is urged by the defendant the ruling of the court in the case of People vs. Yuen et al, who were convicted of rioting and based on the same charge of rioting, Spear having been allegedly involved in the same riot.

The entire proceedings on the sentence of the five defendants, Yuen, Circle, Staten, Zderich and Vassion are set out in full. The court denied the motion for probation made on behalf of these defendants.

On that occasion in passing judgement Judge Tuttle stated: "I want to say that if you had been properly advised and come before this court at the inception of this affair and pleaded guilty you would have been walking the streets today free men."

In the motion for disqualification of Judge Tuttle, he petition alleges that the record shows as interpreted by defendant's counsel, "that unless the defendant pleads guilty to the information filed herein a motion for probation will not be entertained by the court through Judge Raglan Tuttle."

Also that the record "according to the construction placed thereon by said defendant, shows an animus existing by the said Judge Tuttle, against the defendant, the union to which he belongs and the defendants in the case of the People vs. Yuen, et al. That said animus is such that it would prevent the said Judge Tuttle from fairly and impartially sitting upon and determining all matters affecting the substantial rights of the defendant."

To the motion to disqualify, Judge Tuttle has filed an answer denying that he is disqualified to preside in the trial; that he has any bias or prejudice against the defendant and avers that he can give the defendant a fair and impartial trial; he further denies that there is any animus on his part in respect to the defendant, or to the union to which the defendant belongs, or in respect to the defendants in the case of the People vs. Yuen et al.

The motion for change of venue sets out that a fair and impartial trial can not be had in Nevada County, California.

In support of the motion is set out at length the history of the labor troubles in this district since the inception of the strike at the Murchie mine on January 20, 1938, up to and including to the events of April 5. 1938, when the CIO picket line was broken up.

Reference is made to the trial of the People vs. Yuen and the examination of all prospective jurors in that case.

It is alleged that record shows with but very few exceptions all of the prospective jurors called to try that case had formed an opinion regarding the guilt or innocence of the defendants and the petitioner (Spear) alleges the fact to be 'that said prospective jurors had the opinion that the defendants were guilty of the crime charged, to wit: riot, the same alleged offense occurring at the same time petitioner, Grant Spear, is accused of having participated in a riot."

There is also attached to the petition affidavits by several members of the CIO affiliate.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morris have as guests their daughter and son in law, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Von Allmen of Berkeley. Mr. and Mrs. Morris reside near the firm of Lawrence Motors up on the Tahoe Ukiah highway.

Arthur Long state highway employee while panning for gold in gravel not far from this city last weke found a five dollar gold piece minted in 1849 by Moffat and Company.

Open Letter To Any Drunken Driver

SURE, you can drive home a'right. Don't let 'em feed you any of that bunk about letting somebody else take the wheel. Any time old Pete can stand on his two feet he can drive an automobile, drunk or sober. Wattsh a few drinks between friends, anyway. You show 'em who's going to drive.

Pile 'em into the car. That sweet little wife of yours, who's such a swell kid even if she does nag you about driving when you're drunk. And that funny couple with you who want to take a taxicab home. Imagine! Wantin to take a cab! Pile 'em in. Step on the gas. Whoopee! Go places . . .

Brother, you're not the big shot you think you are. You're just a fuzzy-brained, liquored-up, obstinate ass with about as much right to drive an automobile on the public highway as a monkey from the zoo would have.

I won't appeal to your reason because it's obvious that you haven't any. I won't appeal to your emotions because they're pickled.

I noly hope you'll start to drive home some night, alone, when you've one too many under your belt. Then I hope some little emergency will arise which your addled brain and fumbling hands won't enable you to meet. I hope you'll have an encounter with a tree or a telephone pole that will land you in a police cell and your car on a junk heap. As you sober up I hope the baseness of your continued offenses against society will be borne in upon you with sickening clarity. I hope the newspaper headlines will scream out to all your relatives and friends and business acquaintances: PROMINENT LOCAL MAN GETS DRUNK AND LANDS IN JAIL.

Yes, I hope an All-Wise Providence will arrange this little lesson for you. And soon, before you kill somebody, as you surely will if you continue to drive when you are drunk.

"FOUR MEN AND A PRAYER" TO OPEN THURS.

Hollywood has made "Four Men and a Prayer."

And the transition of this popular story, read by millios in book form or magazine serial, promises to provide a number of surprises when it reaches the screen.

Of primary interest, comes the report that the film has not deviated from the original plot.

So when citizens of Nevada City visit the Nevada Theatre during the two nights run of "Four Men and a Prayer" which opens next Thursday, they will find that his 20th Century-Fox production has passed up all the ultra-saccharine cliches of the love motif for the noblest of he-man instincts—the unswerving faith of four sons in their father's honor.

Beautiful gay Loretta Young in practically the only feminine role, is the girl whose love for one of the brothers serves as a shining beacon through clouds of intrigue—and even distrust of her.

Her romantic interes is for Richard Greene, which means that Nevada Theatre patrons will have their first glimpse of the sensational new British star discovery.

Greene however, along with George Sanders, David Niven and William Henry are the four men who forsake everything in their careers to rack down around the world the menace which cashiered their beloved father, C. Aubrey Smith, out of the army in disgrace and then brought death to a great soldier.

Mrs. Ernest Schiffner and three children of Chicago arrived at Colrax last Thursday where they were met by Mr. Schiffner who had preceeded his family by six months coming here last November. Mr. Schiffner had rented the Charles W. Williams home on upper Boulder sreet and prepared it for their arrival. They have come to Nevada City to make it their permanent home.

JUST WONDER-IN'

I wonder about mouse traps
And their power to attract,
When within a dusky forest
They've been made and neatly stacked;
But the world will beat a pathway
To your door I do surmise,
Much more swiftly and completely
If you'll up and advertise.

I wonder at the gentle gullibility of youth and at the fantastic tales which youngsters of all generations hear, believe and make use of, as foundations for their own shimmering castles in Spain.

Once, in my own earlier and more credulous years, I came across a few lines of so-called inspirational writing with which we are all more or less familiar. It intrigued me and in consequence I evoked from the realms of fancy a romance of parts, which had for its hero a modest hermit—a strong- silent man, who spent his days and nights constructing superlative mouse traps. Imagination pictured him, seated in a far distant buck thorn thicket, patiently and industriously evolving never miss rodent destroyers from bits af baling wire, redwood shingles, tin cans, etc. Years passed over his devoted head, but still he labored on; then, quite suddenly, the day of recognition dawned; almost without warning, the world blazed a wide, seven per cent grade right up to his rough hewn door and purchased the largest consignment of mouse traps ever moved by land or by sea.

Probably this little wildwood saga had never taken place in its every detail; but I knew it could. Silence was golden—everybody said hat; and silence combined with creative ability and tireless industry, could be relied upon to produce any desired result. But was this true? Reason answered "No" and then elucidated.

The little success formula which had so enchained my fancy, was misleading; it's author had omitted one very important ingredient—publicity. Silence and isolation are not conductive to commercial or any other brand of success; no matter how perfect one's wares may be, he must tell the world before it will pause and invest; the well known slogan, "It Pay to Advertise," has never been intelligently refuted. If you do not believe that this is true, listen to the radio or ask the publisher of your local newspaper.

I wonder what would happen were we all to join the Rededication Movement; if all true Americans were to cease "viewing with alarm," crying, "wolf! wolf!" and whining about "going to the dogs." That is what the Rededicationists want us to do, and the idea seems to be a splendid one. Why not stop telling ourselves and each other, what is wrong with the country and start talking of what is right with it? No one loves a calamity howler, and dwellers in the home of the brave and the free, will do well to remember the advice contained in these lines:

"Fear not each sudden sound and shock, 'tis of the wave and not the rock;
'Tis but the flapping of the sail, and not a rent made by the gale."

Uncle Silas says: "Mussolini minced no words in telling the world that he didn't want any democratic wheat; well, we don't want any of his dictatorial plans and specifications; so that leaves things even and everybody satisfied."

BIGGEST BAND EVER AT OLYMPIA NEXT SAT. NIGHT

Proclaimed by dancers and dance managers as the greatest attraction ever to tour the Pacific Coast, Jimmie Givens the genius of swing and his archestra and floor show will play at the Lake Olympia dance Saturday evening, July 16th.

JIMMY GIVENS

With the orchestra comes Bo Jenkins with his line of comedy and "taps that talk". He is considered by many as the equal of the famous Bill Robinson. Harriet Calloway a cousin of Cab Calloway has played in pictures, and with the follies for several seasons. Myrtle Quinland, Harlem's Big Apple dancer, was formerly in the cast of New York Cotton Club. Mildred Grant Eudora Proctor in "High, Brown and Hot" and the "Three Diplomats of Rhythem" with "six feet that can't be beat." This marvelous show and Jimmie Givens orchestra with it's perfect dance rhythm will be the finest attraction presented this year and will be sure to entertain until the last echo has died away.

Mrs. C. Ashey and son who have been visiting Mrs. P. Armstrong have returned to their home at Fort Mason, San Francisco. They were so well pleased with Nevada City they plan to return for their vacations next year.

GRAVEL MINING ON WOLF CREEK

The first unit of a 100 yard projected gravel plant on property 12 miles south of Grass Valley on Wolf Creek consisting of a three quarter yard drag line has been installed. Hal Draper, Cole Nawman and Ted Janiss all of Nevada City are interested in the project. It is estimated the plant will handle 900 yards of gravel per day and tests for gold values give good results. The company will not only handle the gravel in Wolf Creek on the one and a half mile long property but will also work the old tailings from Grass Valley quartz mines that have poured into the creek for many years.

PARTY OF FOUR SKI ON SHASTA AND LASSEN

Three Nevada City young men and a friend from Los Gatos had a most delightful trip into Northern California over the recent July Fourth holiday. The boys are Jim Stephens, Roman Rozynski, Walter Mullis of Nevada City and Robert Young of Los Gatos. The group left Nevada City at 3 o'clock Saturday morning and arrived in Mt. Shasta City at 8:30 that morning. From there they drove up the mountain to the 7,000 foot level and walked another 1,000 feet in elevation to Alpine Lodge on the timber line and the snow line. After a rest and something to eat the boys skiied until evening. July 3 they skiied two miles to the 10,000 foot elevation, going up through the clouds as they climbed the mountainside. It took them two hours to climb two miles and 15 minutes to descend 3,000 feet. he boys went to Mt. Shasta City July 3 and visited the largest fish hatchery in the world.

They motored through McCloud, seeing Lake Briton, Byrnie Falls. Subway Cave, which is a cave one fourth mile long formed by air passing through lava when it was hot, and then into Lassen Volcanic National Park.

A party enjoying a fishing trip near Forest last Sunday were Mrs. Will C. Buffington and son Billie, Jo., E. M. McDaniels, Miss Marie McDaniels, Miss Frances Savio and rather, Louie Savio.

Donald Strandberg came up from the bay district for the holiday and several days this week to visit his parents. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Strandberg and to attend to business.

PLATFORM

of DANIEL L. HIRSCH, M. D.
Candidate for Office of
CORONER OF NEVADA COUNTY

The Chief Purpose of the Coroner's Office is to determine the Cause of Death. A Physician and Surgeon trained in his profession, co-operating with the Sheriff, is better qualified to hold an inquest, make examinations, and determine that cause.

The Office of Coroner should be taken out of the hands of an undertaker whose chief interest is burial, and whose business deals with the disposition of the dead. When an autopsy is required by a lay coroner, he must call in a physician, who is the only one permitted by law to make post-mortem examinations.

There is no amublance chasing for burials when a doctor is coroner, as he is a neutral party in the disposition of the remains. This important matter is up to the nearest relative, who should be given perfect freedom to choose the mortician.

It will be my policy, as a Member of our County Medical Society to practice perfect justice in co-operation with my professional colleagues concerning autopsies and cases. It is my desire to serve this County, Efficiently, Faithfully, and Economically. Books, reports, and expenses will ever be open for public inspection.

With Justice and Service to all I pledge myself to carry out this program if elected.
